FORT DRUM GIRL SCOUTS HOST GIFT BAZAAR AT SALMON RUN MALL

Girl Scouts "Think Like Entrepreneurs" to Develop and Host Fundraising Event on November 21st

(Watertown, NY) The Girl Scouts of NYPENN Pathways Fort Drum Service Unit 512 have been busy learning how to truly run a business from conception through success/failure while working on their Girl Scout entrepreneurship badges. On Saturday, November 21st, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., seven troops will sell the repurposed, handmade items they've developed and created, at Salmon Run Mall, across from Paint It Pottery, at the Hobby Lobby end of the mall.

The Fort Drum Girl Scouts have created items ranging from wind chimes to picture frames, from planters to bookmarks (which also come with a free book!). Girls will giftwrap items for no charge. Girl Scout tee-shirt bags (in light of the plastic shopping bag ban) will also be available for purchase. Families with girls interested in learning more about Girl Scouting and joining the program can sign up at the bazaar. Masks and social distancing are required during the event.

Questions about the November 21st event or Girl Scouting in the Fort Drum and greater Watertown area, contact Melissa Johnson at 315-779-0907 or fortdrum@gsnypenn.org.
